

GOLDEN EAGLE

Following Tracks of the Silk Road & Iran

Following a route rarely travelled, embark on a 15-day discovery from Tehran to Moscow, tracing one of ancient civilisation's most important trading routes, the Silk Road. In our cosy yet lavish rolling home, become a part of the ever-changing landscapes that glide past our windows – after all, the finest hotels don't simply offer a stunning view; they offer hundreds. In the Bar Lounge Car, amid red velvet couches and handcrafted mouldings, sample distinctive vodkas as this unseen world is revealed.

Silver Cabin

These cabins are a comfortable size, featuring seating that converts into a double-sized lower bed. A single upper berth can also be folded out. The cabin also contains a wardrobe, safe and remote-controlled heating, while the en suite bathroom is in a wet room-style, with washbasin and toilet.

Gold Cabin

The Gold Cabin is larger than the Silver Cabin and also sleeps two, with a double-sized lower bed and single upper berth. There is also a wardrobe, safe, remote-controlled heating and en suite bathroom with separate shower cubicle.

Imperial Suite

These are one of the most luxurious train suites in the world, featuring a king-sized bed, separate sitting area and a dressing table. The en suite bathroom comes with a separate shower cubicle. Two large picture windows, underfloor heating and your own dedicated butler complete the opulent experience.

Bar Lounge Car

Providing the perfect respite from a day of discovery, the Bar Lounge Car will provide an array of cultural activities including Russian language lessons and history lectures hosted by expert speakers.

Restaurant

Enjoy a buffet breakfast each morning in the Restaurant Car. At lunch and dinner, exceptional dishes, inspired by the different countries we visit, will be served. The Executive Chef and his team skillfully prepare each meal using the finest ingredients, which are sourced locally whenever possible.
